KC MAN PLEADS TO ROLE IN CONSPIRACY TO DISTRIBUTE 1.5 KILOS OF METH

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Kansas City, Mo., pleaded guilty in federal court today to his role in a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine.

Lewis G. Kilgore, 28, of Kansas City, pleaded guilty before U.S. District Judge Fernando J. Gaitan, Jr., this morning.

By pleading guilty, Kilgore admitted that he conspired with others to distribute methamphetamine between Jan. 1, 2002, and July 12, 2004. Specifically, Kilgore admitted that he played a role in distributing at least 1.5 kilograms of methamphetamine.

Kilgore was originally charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury on Aug. 12, 2004, in Kansas City.

Under federal statutes, Graves explained, Kilgore may be subject to a mandatory minimum sentence of 10 years in federal prison without parole, up to life in federal prison without parole, plus a fine up to $4 million.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Michael S. Oliver. It was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the Kansas City Metropolitan Drug Task Force, the Jackson County, Mo., Drug Task Force, the Independence, Mo., Police Department and the Kansas City, Mo., Police Department.
